

Reading Homework Choices

Instead of a Reading Log, students will read a book(s) and complete at least one of the following choices for each 9 weeks. Your book(s) can be from any genre, but your books must be approved by Mr. Kryszak by the dates below. Additional choices and books may result in extra credit.

Book Approvals By: September 2, October 28, January 13, and March 31. Additional books can be approved as needed during each 9 week period.

Due Dates: October 14, December 16, March 10, and June 1.

Choices and Directions:

Book Blog- Create and keep a blog with posts about your reading. Can include: Summaries, Thoughts, Favorite Quotes, Character Analysis, and Expansion to the Story	Book Trailer- Create a trailer for your book. Use reasons why someone should read the book and what they will take away from reading the book. You can include your favorite parts.	Quote List- While reading, write down a favorite line or quote from each chapter. Include what you think the author is trying to say, any connections you make, and why this stuck out to you.
Graphic Adaptation- Design a storyboard or cartoon version of your story. Make sure to include the basic elements of a summary, who, wanted, but, so, and then, in your version.	Old School- Using an online template, create a "traditional" book report for your book.	Become the Teacher- Create a "teacher's guide" to your story. Include a summary, vocab words, and questions to ask your students about your book.
Book Club- Pick a book with a friend or two and have a book club. Use a poster or digital format to include thoughts, connections, extensions, and brain bursts that happened during your discussion.	Voice Actor- For poetry and picture books, create a read aloud for other students. At the end, make sure to include your favorite parts and questions for the reader to ponder.	Books in a Series- Create a timeline of the story. Make sure to include what happens to major characters along the way, how the setting may change, and major plot development. *this can be continuing for more than one 9 weeks

Twitter Chat- With parent permission, tweet to our class twitter @kryszakskahunas with favorite parts, quotes, questions, and connections of what you are reading. Make sure to add your book title.
